PREFACE

This report is one in a series on Soviet Ground Force and Logistic installations being prepared for a DIA/CIA Panel. The series is being coordinated, published and disseminated by NPIC. The photographic analysis is being performed by the NPIC Photographic Analysis Group, the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division (NPIC), and the Production Center 1P1c (DIA). The photographic analysis for this particular report was performed by the Production Center 1P1c.

In the interest of uniformity, the titles and letter designators for the facilities observed at these installations are identical with those appearing in the project requirement. When a specific facility is not observed both its title and letter designator are omitted in the report.

Titles and letter designators for the various facilities are as follows: (A) railroad service, (B) road service, (C) landing strips, (D) administrative and troop housing areas, (E) storage areas, (F) ammunition storage areas, (G) POL storage areas, (H) other buildings and facilities, (J) equipment storage/maintenance areas, (K) athletic fields, (L) small arms firing ranges, (M) driver training areas, (N) tank/assault gun firing ranges, (P) flat trajectory firing ranges, (Q) artillery emplacements (batteries), (R) infantry or combined arms field training areas or courses, (S) special training facilities, (T) unidentified facilities or tracking activity.

SUMMARY

The Khmel'nitskiy Army Barracks Rakovo is located approximately five kilometers (km) southeast of the town of Khmel'nitskiy and covers an area of approximately 400 acres (Figure 1). The area contains (Figures 2 and 3) barracks, administration, and storage buildings with large combat training, small arms, and tank firing ranges immediately southwest. The area is road served. A short spur off the main rail line runs into the area.

A large probable motor pool is located at the center of this installation. No security fences, POL or landing strips were noted. Khmel'nitskiy Airfield is located 2 km northwest.

[redacted] missions covered the installation between [redacted] no significant changes are apparent.

DESCRIPTION OF INSTALLATION

Railroad Service

The double-track Khmel'nitskiy-Derazhnya rail line passes about 100 meters north of the barracks area. A short spur line enters from the northwest.

Road Service

A crushed rock gravel-surfaced road leads from Khmel'nitskiy to the installation, entering at the northwest corner.

Administrative and Troop Housing Area

Area D contains three 250- by 75-foot multi-story administration buildings with center dormers, three multistory administration buildings two 180 by 60 feet, and one U-shaped 230 by 75 by 270 feet, eight 230- by 75-foot barracks, thirteen 190- by 75-foot barracks, and twenty eight 50- by 30-foot quarters.

General Storage Areas

Area E1 contains seven 140- by 60-foot buildings. Area E2 contains two 370- by 65-foot buildings, and Area E3 contains two 140- by 60-foot buildings.

Other Buildings

Approximately 10 small buildings (not indicated on Figure 3) are scattered throughout the area.

Equipment Storage/Maintenance Area

Area J contains one probable 800- by 400-foot motor pool apron and an open area with no large buildings associated. One 190- by 75-foot maintenance/storage building and five 230- by 75-foot maintenance/storage buildings are also located in Area J.

Athletic Field

A small oval track (K) is just southeast of the U-shaped administration building.

Small-Arms Firing Range

One approximately 1,200- by 300-foot range (L) is adjacent to the tank firing range.

Tank/Assault Gun Firing Range

One 4,000- by 750-foot tank/assault gun firing range with one static firing position 4,000 feet from the target and approximately 10 degrees to the line of fire is located in Area N.

Infantry or Combined-Arms Field Training Area or Courses

A large combat training area (see NPIC/R-181/64), is 4 km southwest of the barracks area. The area is approximately 7 km long northwest-southeast and 3 km wide northeast-southwest.
